

Memo

To: The Honorable Chris Oldner, 416th District Court, Collin County, Texas

From: Collin County Grand Jury

Date: 1/6/2010

Re: Investigation of the Collin County Court at Law #6

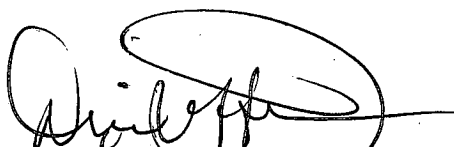

---

We the undersigned members of the Grand Jury, having heard all of the evidence presented in the investigation mentioned above, over a period of several weeks, have concluded:

1. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a felony.
2. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a misdemeanor.
3. While Judge Greg Willis may have run his court in a manner that is different than another judge may run theirs, that is not a crime and should not be viewed as one.

Respectfully submitted.

Thomas M. Baird, Sr., Foreperson

Dixie Jeffers, Vice Foreperson

William Avery

Claude Ann Collins

Anna Hale

David Laisure

Fran Keller

Joe Privitt

Johnnie Pryor

Kailyn Tedford

Mike McChesney

Wyatt McGuire

Memo

To: The Honorable Chris Oldner, 416th District Court, Collin County, Texas
From: Collin County Grand Jury
Date: 1/6/2010
Re: Investigation of the Collin County Court at Law #6

---

We the undersigned members of the Grand Jury, having heard all of the evidence presented in the investigation mentioned above, over a period of several weeks, have concluded:

1. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a felony.
2. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a misdemeanor.
3. While Judge Greg Willis may have run his court in a manner that is different than another judge may run theirs, that is not a crime and should not be viewed as one.

Respectfully submitted.

Thomas M. Baird, Sr., Foreperson

Dixie Jeffers, Vice Foreperson

William Avery

Claude Ann Collins
Claude Ann Collins

Anna Hale

David Laisure

Fran Keller

Joe Privitt

Johnnie Pryor

Kailyn Tedford

Mike McChesney

Wyatt McGuire

Memo

To: The Honorable Chris Oldner, 416th District Court, Collin County, Texas
From: Collin County Grand Jury
Date: 1/6/2010
Re: Investigation of the Collin County Court at Law #6

---

We the undersigned members of the Grand Jury, having heard all of the evidence presented in the investigation mentioned above, over a period of several weeks, have concluded:

1. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a felony.
2. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #5 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a misdemeanor.
3. While Judge Greg Willis may have run his court in a manner that is different than another judge may run theirs, that is not a crime and should not be viewed as one.

Respectfully submitted.

Thomas M. Baird, Sr., Foreperson

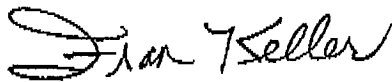

Dixie Jeffers, Vice Foreperson

William Avery

Claude Ann Collins

Anna Hale

David Laisure

 Fran Keller

Joe Privitt

Johnnie Pryor

Kailyn Tedford

Mike McChesney

Wyatt McGuire

Memo

To: The Honorable Chris Oldner, 416th District Court, Collin County, Texas
From: Collin County Grand Jury
Date: 1/6/2010
Re: Investigation of the Collin County Court at Law #6

---

We the undersigned members of the Grand Jury, having heard all of the evidence presented in the investigation mentioned above, over a period of several weeks, have concluded:

1. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a felony.
2. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a misdemeanor.
3. While Judge Greg Willis may have run his court in a manner that is different than another judge may run theirs, that is not a crime and should not be viewed as one.

Respectfully submitted.

Thomas M. Baird, Sr., Foreperson

Dixie Jeffers, Vice Foreperson

William Avery

Claude Ann Collins

Anna Hale

David Laisure

Fran Keller

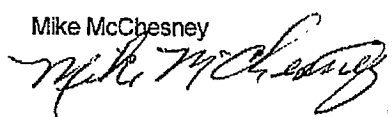

Joe Privitt

Johnnie Pryor

Kailyn Tedford

Mike McChesney

Wyatt McGuire

Memo

To: The Honorable Chris Oldner, 416th District Court, Collin County, Texas
From: Collin County Grand Jury
Date: 1/6/2010
Re: Investigation of the Collin County Court at Law #6

---

We the undersigned members of the Grand Jury, having heard all of the evidence presented in the investigation mentioned above, over a period of several weeks, have concluded:

1. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a felony.
2. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #8 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a misdemeanor.
3. While Judge Greg Willis may have run his court in a manner that is different than another judge may run theirs, that is not a crime and should not be viewed as one.

Respectfully submitted.

Thomas M. Baird, Sr., Foreperson

Dixie Jeffers, Vice Foreperson

William Avery

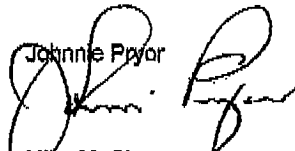

Claude Ann Collins

Anna Hale

David Laisure

Fran Keller

Joe Privitt

Johnnie Pryor

 Mike McChesney

Kailyn Tedford

Wyatt McGuire

Memo

To: The Honorable Chris Oldner, 416th District Court, Collin County, Texas
From: Collin County Grand Jury
Date: 1/7/2010
Re: Investigation of the Collin County Court at Law #6

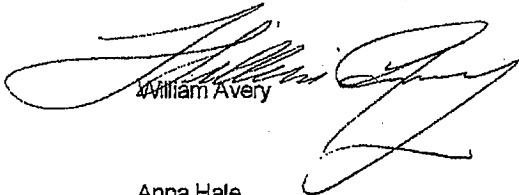

We the undersigned members of the Grand Jury, having heard all of the evidence presented in the investigation mentioned above, over a period of several weeks, have concluded:

1. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a felony.
2. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a misdemeanor.
3. While Judge Greg Willis may have run his court in a manner that is different than another judge may run theirs, that is not a crime and should not be viewed as one.

Respectfully submitted.

Thomas M. Baird, Sr., Foreperson

Dixie Jeffers, Vice Foreperson

William Avery

Claude Ann Collins

Anna Hale

David Laisure

Fran Keller

Joe Privitt

Johnnie Pryor

Kailyn Tedford

Mike McChesney

Wyatt McGuire

Memo

To: The Honorable Chris Oldner, 416th District Court, Collin County, Texas
From: Collin County Grand Jury
Date: 1/6/2010
Re: Investigation of the Collin County Court at Law #6

---

We the undersigned members of the Grand Jury, having heard all of the evidence presented in the investigation mentioned above, over a period of several weeks, have concluded:

1. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a felony.
2. No activity occurred in County Court at Law #6 that could in any way be construed as rising to the level of a misdemeanor.
3. While Judge Greg Willis may have run his court in a manner that is different than another Judge may run theirs, that is not a crime and should not be viewed as one.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas M. Baird, Sr., Foreperson

Dixie Jeffers, Vice Foreperson

William Avery

Claude Ann Collins

Anna Hale

David Laisure

Fran Keller

Joe Privitt

Johnnie Pryor

Kailyn Tedford
 Kailyn Tedford

Mike McChesney

Wyatt McGuire